

“With my online profile, I can print out a complete report of all of my efforts to show employers, landlords and even judges.”

Welcome to the web site that helps you create a positive online profile by giving you the tools to rebuild your life.

You get:

1. A resume for print, download or email whenever you need it, it's available online for you.
2. A free, online profile complete with a short video where you talk about your past and what you want in the future. Stop repeating your past over and over.
3. Download and/or print your profile for court appearances, PO check ins and landlord background checks.
4. Recommendation cards to harvest positive feedback for your profile.
5. Access to free online classes from the world's top universities

We've made it easy for you to get started. The signup process consists of 4 easy steps.

1. Create Your Account (Takes about 2 minutes)
2. Fill out our online profile history, skills and strengths assessment (Takes 5 minutes)
3. Review your profile and resume for downloading and/or printing
4. Sit back and decide what your next step is. You just took the first one by establishing your positive online presence where your effort to build a good life is proof of your work! Your profile at myrebuiltlife.com is yours to build. All efforts count because our employers come to our site looking for people just like you.

Later on, you can use our easy script to help you tell your story through your profile video, add any additional information to your profile, upload your photo and add anything else that helps employers get to know who you are and why they should hire you.

We give you the online tools to build a solid foundation for your new life.

You can get credit for volunteer efforts, free online classes and good deeds you do right in your own community as well as community based volunteer hours.

We give you recommendation cards to print directly off of your profile page. Give these out to anyone who asks you to help them accomplish a task so your profile can reflect your efforts.

Employers Hire People Who Contribute

Say you help a neighbor shovel snow. After you successfully complete the task, give your neighbor a reference card that they will use to go to our site with your name and user number and leave feedback on our easy form. You can then accept or reject each recommendation left
